Psalm 119:97

- I. Once you come into the knowledge of something or someone that is great, you don't hesitate to share that information with others. Read John 4:25-30. This woman was excited about her newfound revelation.
- II. How do you feel about corporate praise and worship? When the church comes together, blood bought, the redeemed of the Lord, Heaven bound, those who are knowledgeable of what the Lord has done for them, what should be the atmosphere in the building? I submit to you it should be a place of "the freedom of expression", an atmosphere of true praise and worship.
- III. What could be a hindrance of an atmosphere of true praise and worship? _____

Explore It

- I. An Invitation To Join In Praise Psalm 34:3a
  - a. "O". What do you believe this represents in the lead-off position of this text? _____

b. Magnify. This word means to make large. God cannot be made larger than He is so, Who can make God great? How do we reconcile this word magnify in respect to David's request? _____
_____

c. The Lord With Me? This invitation is the evidence of one who has been _____ by the loving hand of the Lord. When you are reminded of what the Lord has done for you, you are not ashamed to praise Him in front of others.

d. Read Psalm 150:1-6:

e. Psalm 34:3b: "Let us exalt His name together". Social and congregational worship is the outgrowth of one natural instinct of the life. If you have been made new, there should be a praise on your lips.
