 - c. We also know that God have spoken through prophets (primarily in the Old Testament)
 - d. Tonight, we will explore other ways God speaks to man.

Explore It

I. God Speaks To Us Through Creation

- a. Psalm 19:1,2: Read: The word glory here means that which constitutes the glory or honor of God—his wisdom, power, skill, faithfulness, benevolence, as seen in the starry worlds above us, the silent, but solemn movements by day and by night.

Barnes' Notes on the Old Testament.

- b. Genesis 1:1: Why do you think God made man after He created the heavens and earth? _____
- c. How does creation speak to us? _____

II. God Speaks To Us Through Difficulties

- a. Psalm 119:67,68: Read: Many have been humbled under affliction and taught to know themselves and humble themselves before God, that probably without this could never have been saved; after this, they have been serious and faithful. Affliction sanctified is a great blessing; unsanctified, it is an additional curse.

Adam Clarke's Commentary.

- b. Many of us have a story of being broken and then and only then did we hear the Lord. Do you have a story to share? _____

III. From The Lips of Man

- a. Acts 9:17: Read: What took place in this passage as it relates to man speaking to man? _____

- b. Is od using man to speak to man today? If so, how? _____
