Psalm 119:97

Open It

- I. As we discovered last week David leaves praise and begin teaching a powerful message on conduct, behavior. Why? David was preparing them for a life with God. The same God that saved his life. The same God he taught them to praise. This is the God for whom you will represent. It is a contradiction to praise God and persecute man. Therefore, how we treat man, what we say, how we say it can have grave consequences. In other words, “watch your mouth”.
- II. One of the things we notice about David in this Psalm is that he is bold in his teaching. We also notice that this boldness does not lead to condemnation but education. I believe a strong teaching ministry must be one which educate in an effort to lead others to a fruitful life with God. This is my goal as we continue to build a church which is after God’s heart. For us to build a strong teaching ministry we must have people who are willing to learn.

III. Do we care that God is watching how we live? Do we care that God is watching how we treat each other? Now that you know that God is watching, what will you do with this information? _____
