Psalm 119:97

Open It

- I. Our condition alone should not produce our praise and worship but our position. 2 Corinthians 5:17-19. Now that we are in God by way of our relationship with Jesus Christ, our praise and worship should be produced by our standing.
- II. David wrote this Psalm not from a condition of comfort but from a cave after running for his life. When trouble is on your heels, your world is turned upside down, is praise and worship still a priority for you?
- III. What do we need to do to keep praise and worship in our front eyes and in our mouth? _____

Explore It

- I. Psalm 34:1
 - a. “His praise shall continually be in my mouth”.
 - b. What does this mean? It does not necessarily mean that every second of every day we are actively thinking about and praising God. This would be impossible. The second part of the verse clarifies and says that his praise shall “continually” be on our mouths. It is a habit, a lifestyle. “At all times” means in every type of situation we find ourselves in. When things are going well, David would praise God. And when he was on the run from his enemies, he would still praise God. During both situations, God is still on His throne. His attributes and plans do not change.

c. Verse 2: My Soul. The soul is not external but internal. Therefore, praise is the byproduct of _____. Notice this verse teaches that the boasting here is not just with the tongue, but it comes from the _____.

d. The confident expression of tested believers is rich. What does this statement mean to you? _____
