Psalm 119:97

Open It

- I. Two weeks ago, we talked about “The Law Of Awareness”. I want to restate something I said then because I truly believe it is important to our growth. It is important to have a sense of direction. Any person who wants to grow but doesn't know himself is in trouble. To grow you must know yourself, your strengths, and weaknesses. Your interests and opportunities. What do you know about you that is a hindrance to your growth? What are you prepared to do about it?
- II. Tonight, I want to continue teaching about what we started last week “The Law of the mirror”. I want you to know how close “The Law Of Awareness” and “The Law Of The Mirror” really is.
- III. Listen to this. No one can change their expression in the mirror unless they change their expression on their face. If you look at your face in the mirror and you only see your weaknesses, disappointments your expression want change.

Explore It

- I. The Law Of The Mirror
 - a. This was a line out of Michael Jackson's song “The Man In The Mirror” “I'm starting with the man in the mirror
I'm asking him to change his ways

And no message could've been any clearer
If they wanna make the world a better place
Take a look at yourself and then make a change

b. When you see yourself as valuable change can come. Are you worth investing in? _____

c. 2 Peter 3:18. _____

d. Stop comparing yourself to others. What is the danger in doing this?
