Psalm 119:97

Introduction

Trusting God versus trusting your eyes, which one wins? The path to peace is the path that trust God regardless of what it looks like. What we see and hear can be overwhelming however, they that are of the Lord must learn to trust God when you can't trace Him. In our lesson tonight we will witness the actions of Abraham when he finds himself in a difficult situation. After reading the text some of you might think he took the right course of action however, the path to peace was tied to his trust in God not trusting in his own ingenuity.

The Lesson

I. Trusting God's Protection Is The Path To Peace

a. Read Gen. 12: 1-3: What was the promise of God for Abram's journey?

b. Read verses 7-9: What was Abram's response to the promise of God?

c. Read verse 10: What was the adversity in this text? _____. What should be our response when adversity takes us off the path of peace?

d. Read verses 11-15: Discuss whether you agree or disagree with the actions of Abram in this passage and why. _____

_____ In this same situation what do you believe you would have done?

- e. Trusting God for your life is the path of peace. In the mist of trials and trouble one only need to refer to the promise of God. Gen. 12:1-3

II. Practical Application
