Psalm 119:97

Upen It

- I. Verses 15-22 of this Psalm speaks about the protection of God for those who are now in the family. The family of God is made-up of those who have left this world behind and accepted God as their father. If this is you, you have protection from God and eternal security when this life is over.
- II. Why was this important for those in the cave with David to hear? I believe it was important because many will ask what the benefit is for following the Lord. As many of you can testify, following the Lord will pay off more than staying in the world.
- III. The relationship with God is not sustained by praise alone but as we have seen throughout this Psalm, David teaches that your walk with God is just as important.
