Psalm 119:97

Introduction

- I. If we are honest tonight, we can look back at some of our assignments from God and conclude, “I did not want that assignment”.
- II. The path of peace will sometimes travel through paths that we want no part of. However, because of the assignment from God, it is a path we must follow in order to have peace with God and the peace of God.
- III. Read Acts 9:17-21: What do you do when you receive an assignment that you don't want to do? _____
_____

The Lesson

- I. Gods' Assignment and Mans' Response. Peace in An Unwanted Role
  - a. Read Exodus 3:1-8: What assurance did God give to Moses? _____
_____
  - b. Verse 10: Thinking about the path to peace, who were the beneficiaries of this path? _____
  - c. Verse 11: Was this reply from Moses the beginning of this unwanted assignment? _____
“Who am I, that I should go? With these words, Moses is talking about his _____ for the assignment. Many times we reject the call or the path to peace because we feel that we are not _____ to take it.
  - d. Verse 12: God gives Moses the _____ that He will be with him on this assignment.
  - e. Read Exodus 2:11-15: Did Moses have a legitimate reason for not wanting this assignment? _____. What would be the one word that describe Moses' reason for not wanting to go back to Egypt. _____ Could this one word be the reason for many of us not wanting to travel on the path of peace?
