Psalm 119:97

Open It

- I. Last week we talked about “The Law Of Awareness”. It is important to have a sense of direction. Any person who wants to grow but doesn’t know himself is in trouble. To grow you must know yourself, your strengths, and weaknesses. Your interests and opportunities. What do you know about you that is a hindrance to your growth? What are you prepared to do about?
- II. Is there a risk making a change from what you are currently doing to what you want to do? The answer is yes. But why? _____

- III. Tonight, I want to move to “The Law Of The Mirror”. You must see value in yourself to add value to yourself. What do you see when you look in the mirror? Do you only see who you are now or do you also see who you could grow to be?

- I. The Law Of The Mirror
 - a. Listen to this. No one can change their expression in the mirror unless they change their expression on their face. If you look at your face in the mirror and you only see your weaknesses, disappointments your expression want change. The change on your face can only come when you add God in the mix. Now the expression on my face changes because I am not looking at what I am but what I could be. My growth come when I recognize the potential of God and not my own.
