Study Subject: The Path To Peace 13

Date: 04/30/2025

Introduction

There can be no doubt in our minds about the flow of the “path to peace”. This peace I speak of is the peace of God and peace with God. Remember, the peace with God arrives at the point of salvation. The peace of God is what we enjoy during a storm.

Tonight, we will discover that the path of peace flows through “accepting God’s will”. Read Luke 22:42: What is Jesus saying in this verse? _____.

Read Luke 11:2. We are taught to say what in this model prayer? _____

There can be no doubt that the path of peace flows through “His Will”.

The Lesson

I. Peace In Accepting God’s Will

- a. Luke 1:26-33: Mary’s encounter with the angel provided her with “mind blowing” information. Can you identify the mind blowing information in this passage that could have caused her to leave the path of peace. _____

b. What was Mary's response in verse 34? Was it doubt or clarification? _____

c. Read verses 35-38: Because the path to peace is in accepting God's Will, does the will of God impede on Mary's free will? If so, how? If not, why not? _____

II. Practical Application
