Psalm 119:97

Open It

- I. David was preparing them for a life with God. Therefore, he continues his message concerning conduct and behavior. I cannot stress this enough, how you live matters. How we treat others matters. This is not just a message about how you live and treat those who believe what you believe but also those who are not believers.
- II. This message is a call to action. Paul had a similar message to the believers at Ephesus. Read Eph. 4:25-32. Because this message was delivered by David and now by Paul, what does this tell us about our day? _____
- III. God is the protector of the righteous. We are always under the watchful eyes of God. Therefore, we will not live in fear as we do the will of Him that sent us. Explain the dangerous results of fear in the lives of believers. _____

- I. How You Live Matters Psalm 34:14

a. David, while he is in the cave teaches that how you live in front of them who know you and those who don't, can make a difference in how we respond to God and the message of God.

b. Verse 14: Depart from evil. This denotes that evil is always near. Read Job 2:1-10. What is the primary lesson in this passage? _____

c. This verse speaks to every form of evil. Evil people, evil company, evil things, evil words, and works., even the appearance of evil. Read Prov. 8:13; 16:6. How does these passages impact our thought process? _____
